

I am writing to inform you, the FCC, how important K-Love is to me and my family. I listen to it daily while in the car and at home. My children know most of the songs and are better for it. It would be a void in our community to not have the positive and uplifting station available. This station has impacted my children and other children as to a fun, healthy, uplifting way to listen to radio. Please do not change this broadcast.